Hey Cory!! I have no clue about all this skier lingo and inside stuff, but just wanted to let you know I've been following you from Alexandria, NH! A lot of the classes here at my school learn about the Iditarod and follow a musher, so of course I can't let that opportunity go by to tell them all about the skier I follow! You are amazing! Love Cousin Pammie

Cory, If you see a bus, it's probably just a hallucination. Just wait for the next one and start counting them. You'll be in McGrath in no time. Love Mom

I'll be trying to will good weather and trail conditions your way. We miss you, and can't wait to have you home and hear all the details. Thanks for calling. It was great to hear your voice. Only 50 miles to go....
